

Introduction:

Summer means warm weather, road trips, and summer reading. Don't think of it as the required reading of your high school days, but think of it as an invitation to find hope, fullness, confidence, & drive. We'll take a look at what two New Testament writers had to say about living out our faith.

Scripture:

You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

—1 John 4:4

Discussion Questions:

1. What is the craziest thing you have read on the internet and believed? Did it turn out to be true?
2. What chore do the members of your household wrestle over NOT completing? Why does everyone avoid it?
3. What are some false teachings about faith that you have heard or believed before?
4. When you said “yes” to Jesus, God planted a piece of himself in you through the Holy Spirit. And that Spirit is greater than our human nature. Share about a time when the Spirit of God was greater in your life than your human nature.
5. Is there a task or responsibility in your life that used to feel like a burden, but doesn't any more because of love?
